THREADS OF HOPE - FASHION EVENT

The love for fashion, fabrics and colors is an important part of human culture and identity. Fashion is a global business conservatively estimated at over US$1.3 trillion or approximately 2% of the value of the world economy. The South Asian bridal fashion market including jewelry is alone estimated to be approx. $100 billion. South Asia is renowned for its weaving and exquisite craftsmanship. For the region, the fashion business is a life changing economic development. South Asia is today home to some of the finest artisans, designers and creative and business people in the global space.

At the SAARC Business Summit 2018, Threads of Hope fashion event will bring a collaborative collection that draws from the region’s collective history, the contemporary influences and the culture of humanity. The garments are interpretations of exploring hope and a medium of expression in the wider world of the fashion business. In the discourse of humanity, ultimately fashion is a conversation about who we are… fashion is a beautiful thing.
MUSIC BEYOND BORDERS

The South Asian nations are bounded together by geography, culture and centuries of flowering of arts and many manifestation of human creativity. The hearts of the people of South Asia are hemmed in shared values, harmonious music and diverse culture, and overshadows the conflicts and difference. Music being the voice of Angels has always been the stimulus of harmony and the art that can calm the agitations of the souls and has sooths conflicts. Be it the, Risgars of Bhutan, the melodious songs of India, the minstrel of Afghanistan or Sufi Music of Pakistan, music knows no boundaries, is enjoyed and heeded without any discrimination and difference.

A musical evening under the theme of Music beyond Borders: Unleashing Harmony, with the objective to celebrate the different musical heritage and cultures in South Asia. The creative notion for this occasion is based on organizing a musical event that will feature some of the finest musicians and singers of the SAARC region to perform folk and contemporary music.
